The kind of hotel you choose tells a lot about you. In Milan, the capital of fashion and design, variety is in vogue. If you want to focus on style while staying in the city, there are many different options whether you are traveling for business or are planning a weekend of shopping. You can choose among 5-star luxury accommodations characterized by classic elegance or opt for something more stylish, or you can go for solutions that are more surprising and unusual. The common thread is an unconventional stay.

CLASSIC.

Carlton Hotel Baglioni, via Senato 5. Perfect for either leisure or business travel. Located in the heart of the luxury fashion district, it overlooks via della Spiga, the most famous shopping street with via Montenapoleone, the Duomo and La Scala nearby. The Baretto al Baglioni is one of the most famous restaurants in Milan while the Caffè Baglioni is perfect for intimate work meetings or important appointments.

Four Seasons Hotel Milano, via Gesù 6/8. This convent from the 15th century has been transformed into an urban sanctuary of luxury and comfort in the heart of the city, in the center of one of the most historic areas of Milan. A 5-star hotel created around a tranquil courtyard art, fine marble and wood, majestic spaces, captivating light, a centuries-old garden and a spa, it puts the focus on the concept of hospitality. Here haute cuisine is the everyday norm. The Caffè Parigi is a high-end restaurant as well as being a bistro for an informal lunch in a stylish atmosphere.

Grand Hotel et de Milan, via Manzoni 29. A century-and-a-half of Milanese history can be found in the oldest hotel in the city, a destination for those seeking luxury, gourmet cuisine, discretion and privacy in the intimate, retro atmosphere of a noble palazzo. A stone's throw from La Scala, it counts maestro Giuseppe Verdi among its most illustrious guests from the end of the 19th century.

Seven Stars Galleria, via Silvio Pellico 8. Avant-garde design and high technology with respect for the past. Experience the extraordinary in one of the 7 contemporary suites located on the main floor of the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II. The magnificent Penthouse Galleria was recently added. A private setting just a few meters from the Duomo with ultra-exclusive services.

Sheraton Diana Majestic, viale Piave 42. An iconic location in a setting of great Milanese tradition. It is the perfect base for shopping, business and seeing the sights that are the "historic jewels" of the city. The aperitif is a must-attend. It takes place every evening starting at 7 p.m. and is one of the most famous and popular in the city with a resident DJ and signature 3rooms - 10 corso como, corso Como 10. Located in a typical Milanese courtyard, it's an intimate and trendy setting that features art, photographs, music, literature, designer clothing and slow food. There are three suites, each of which has its own private entrance, characterized by very stylish hospitality with furnishings from the best designers offering their personal interpretation of design from the mid-20th-century.

Armani Hotel Milano, via Manzoni 31. The rationalist style of this building with austere lines interpreted via the Armani aesthetic. The result is luxurious hospitality characterized by order, spaciousness, high-tech systems, furnishings inspired by the designer's home collections, and a unique concept of service that is continuous and discreet with a lifestyle manager running the show. Spa and a 24-hour business center.

Bulgari Hotels & Resorts Milano, via Privata Fratelli Gabba 7/b. A restorative oasis of serenity and relaxation in the cultural and commercial hub of Milan. Located in an old Milanese building from the 18th century, it has been rendered absolutely contemporary with design furnishings and rare materials like black marble from Zimbabwe and Aphyon stone. Complete with spa, event and meeting space and a 4.000 square-meter private garden, which is a natural extension of the nearby botanical garden.

Magna Pars Suites Milano, via Forcella 6. A 5-star hotel olfactory elements with 39 refined essences - one for each suite - dedicated to flowering plants and fruit trees.

Château Monfort, corso Concordia 1. The spaces here have been knowingly renovated and elegantly furnished for a luxury 5-star hotel that offers up the romantic feel of a castle. An urban château that has created its identity by taking inspiration from fairy-tale atmospheres with a reinterpretation of the space via a delicate neo-romantic style with enchanted gardens, secrets and atmospheres borrowed from the world of fairy tales.

SECRET

Cocoon, via Voghera 7. A B&B with a garden in the Tortona District, it is located a stone's throw from the Porta Genova station and the subway. A peaceful refuge in a neighborhood known for its nightlife and for design, characterized by a welcoming atmosphere full of attention to detail and to service. Exclusive hospitality with three charming rooms overlooking a secret garden.

Hotel Maison Borella, Alzaia Naviglio Grande 8. Created from a typical old Milanese - style balustrade tenement with inner courtyard, this hotel has been updated with all of the modern comforts and exclusive services. It overlooks the Naviglio Grande canal and is immersed in the warm atmospheres of old Milan. The lobby is equipped for meetings and events for business clients looking for a there are two such places. My Bed Colonne and My Bed Montenapoleone. Design, comfort and attention to detail at an accessible cost. Rooms with custom-made Italian furnishings, designer sheets and towels and pieces by Italian architects. Use of tablets and free Wi-Fi included.

Palazzo Segreti, via Maurizio Quadrio 15. A subtle, secret and seductive atmosphere in a period palazzo between La Scala and the Castello Sforzesco. An unusual Milanese space conceived as somewhere private and far from everyday life. An Italian feel and a passion for art are the distinctive traits of the 18 rooms as well as the Winery and lounge bar. There are works of contemporary artists on display thanks to a collaboration with the Galleria Lia Rumma.

Loft Rossosegnale, via San Vincenzo 34. A new idea of hospitality strategically located near Sant'Ambrogio, the piazza del Duomo, Santa Maria delle Grazie, the Navigli area and the Tortona Design District. A Milanese loft in a former photo studio with an independent entrance in a building from the beginning of the 20th century. Its essence is industrial, but it has been taken in an Art Deco and vintage direction via the use of antique pieces, design pieces and works by young artists.

Santa Marta Suites, via Santa Marta 4. An oasis of tranquility in the center of Milan in a warm setting that stands out for its personalized service. An environment

BACK TO VIEWS.

The Yard, piazza XXIV Maggio 8. A boutique hotel overlooking the new Darsena (Milan's system of canal docks) promenade. There's a lobby, cinema, backgammon tables and a lounge bar with trunks, hat boxes, sports trophies and antique objects that have been converted into design elements for a guest house par excellence immersed in a subdued, timeless setting.

Vietnamonamour, via Alessandro Pestalozza 7 and via Torquato Taramelli 67. Two refined B&Bs are managed by French-Vietnamese Christiane Blanchet along with her husband Dario Arlunno. From the furnishings to the original ingredients used in the two restaurants (both located on the ground floor of the B&Bs), everything here comes from Vietnam.
