Rooms 3.

Named after the bright red elevator and stairwell that ascends through the centre of the building, RossoSegnale seamlessly blends art with hospitality. Every couple of months, the B&B's three rooms and public spaces – including a garden, a terrace and an art gallery – are hung with the works of a new artist from territories as diverse as Europe and the Far East. The three rooms cater to different tastes, so make sure you pick the one best suited to you: Bianconeve is a study in minimalist monochrome; Giallonovecento channels travel of yore; while Rosaconiglio features pink rabbits and hints of Japan. The changing atmosphere is as dynamic as the owners, Alberto and Raoul, whose
